Summary of Requirements:

Civil rights are the nonpolitical rights of a citizen: the rights of personal liberty guaranteed to United States citizens by the 13th and 14th amendments to the United States Constitution and Acts of Congress. All School Food Authorities (SFAs) participating in the National School Lunch Program (NSLP), School Breakfast Program, Afterschool Snack Program, and/or Special Milk Program must on a yearly basis:

1. Ensure effective public notification systems by prominently displaying the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) "And Justice for All" poster and using the nondiscrimination statement to convey equal opportunity in all photos and other graphics on websites and publications that are used to provide program-related information.
2. Provide information in other languages for the availability and benefits of the NSLP to individuals who do not speak English as their primary language and who have a limited ability to read, speak, write, or understand English.
3. Provide appropriate information in alternative formats for persons with disabilities.
4. Include the nondiscrimination statement on all appropriate Food and Nutrition Service (FNS) publications, websites, posters, and informational materials including the instructions for filing a discrimination complaint with the Secretary of Agriculture.
5. Guarantee that all children have equal access to services and facilities at the site, regardless of race, color, national origin, sex, age, or disability.
6. Establish and maintain systems for collecting and reporting racial and ethnic data. FNS requires recipients of federal financial assistance to ask all program applicants and participants to identify all the racial categories that apply. Respect for individual dignity should guide the process for collecting data on race and ethnicity. Respondent self-identification or self-reporting is the preferred method. If the applicant refuses, the institution staff will code data based on perception. All material must be filed in an area with restricted access and retained for three years.
7. Follow complaint procedures that are established to accept complaints or grievances based on race, color, national origin, sex, age, or disability. Participants must be advised of their right to file a complaint and the complaint procedures. If there are complaints, the institution must alert the Michigan Department of Education (MDE). The MDE complaint procedures and forms are included at the end of this administrative policy document and must be part of the SFA civil rights procedure.
8. Complete Civil Rights Compliance reviews:
 - School Food Authorities (SFAs) conduct self-monitoring annually for each building to ensure civil rights requirements are met.
 - SFAs complete the pre-award civil rights information in their official application for Program funds, which is in Michigan Electronic Grants System Plus (MEGS+).

- The State Agency (MDE) evaluates Civil Rights Compliance for SFAs during the Administrative Review every three years.
9. Conduct civil rights training annually for all current/new staff responsible for administering the NSLP, including frontline staff.
10. Conduct civil rights training for staff. Specific subject areas include:
- Collecting and Using Data - Data are being collected on ethnicity and race. Parent self-declares. If he/she refuses, institution staff will code based on perception. All material must be filed in an area of restricted access and retained for three years.
 - Effective Public Notification Systems - Display the "And Justice for All" poster, use the nondiscrimination statement, provide information in other languages and alternative formats as needed, and convey equal opportunity in all photos and other graphics on websites, publications, etc.
 - Complaint Procedures - Procedures must be established to accept complaints or grievances based on race, color, national origin, sex, age, or disability. Participants must be advised of their right to file a complaint, how to file a complaint, and the complaint procedures. If there are complaints, the institution must alert MDE. The MDE forms for complaint procedures are included at the end of this administrative policy.
 - Compliance Review Techniques - Ensure civil rights requirements are being followed during the review process.
 - Resolution of Non-Compliance - Inappropriate actions must cease. A corrective action plan is required and appropriate procedures must be implemented.
 - Requirements for Reasonable Accommodation of Persons with Disabilities - Entrances and exits to accommodate the disabled, Braille signage, and alternative arrangements for service must be available, when needed.
 - Requirements for Language Assistance - Bilingual materials and translation must be provided.
 - Conflict Resolution - Use alternative dispute resolution techniques as needed. Treat others with respect.

How to Recognize a Civil Rights Complaint

If a person says their civil rights are being affected, the complaint must be treated as a civil rights complaint. Other legitimate complaints may only be voiced or observed as being unequal treatment. In all cases, the established procedure is to use a complaint form, the log, referring the request to the civil rights authority in the school district or facility and reporting the complaint to the Michigan Department of Education (MDE). The complaint can be investigated locally, resolved locally and the MDE is notified of the resolution.

Potential issues for a civil rights complaint may start with a phone call, letter, email, fax or any form of communication where someone feels they or someone they know has received unequal treatment in the operation of any Child Nutrition Program.

There are six protected classes in Child Nutrition Programs and these are race, color, sex, age, national origin, disability.

Discrimination is defined as different treatment which makes a distinction of one person or a group of persons from others; either intentionally, by neglect, or by the actions or lack of actions based on race, color, sex, age, national origin, disability

To quickly identify a civil rights violation, remember 4 D's:

1. Deny program benefits unfairly
2. Delay program benefits unfairly
3. Treat differently (a policy or practice that has an adverse impact or any form of intimidation or retaliation)
4. Give Disparate Treatment (defined as a policy or practice which, "on the face of it" is not discriminatory, but has a discriminatory impact in practice, also known as the "effects test")

In accordance with Federal civil rights law and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, the USDA, its Agencies, offices, and employees, and institutions participating in or administering USDA programs are prohibited from discriminating based on race, color, national origin, sex, religious creed, disability, age, political beliefs, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity in any program or activity conducted or funded by USDA.

Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication for program information (e.g. Braille, large print, audiotope, American Sign Language, etc.), should contact the Agency (State or local) where they applied for benefits. Individuals who are deaf, hard of hearing or have speech disabilities may contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339. Additionally, program information may be made available in languages other than English.
